About the conference

The National Centre of Excellence in Intellectual Disability Health made this information.

We will say the Centre for short.

We are having a conference in July 2025.

A conference is when lots of people come together to talk about an issue.

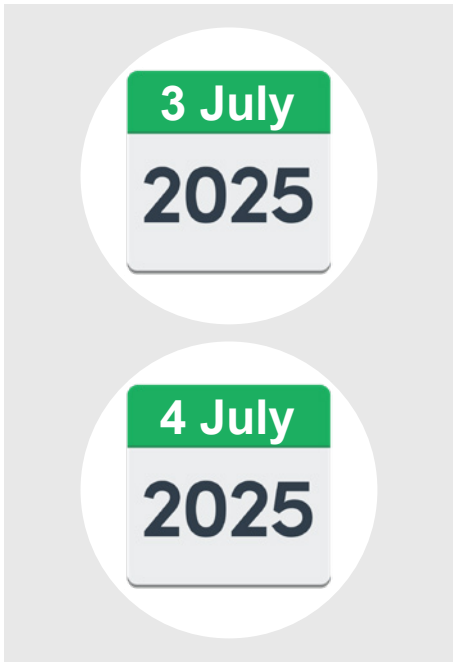

Our conference is about the health of people with intellectual disability.

It is about how we can all work together to have better health care for everyone.

The conference goes for 2 days.

It is on

- Thursday 3 July 2025
- Friday 4 July 2025.

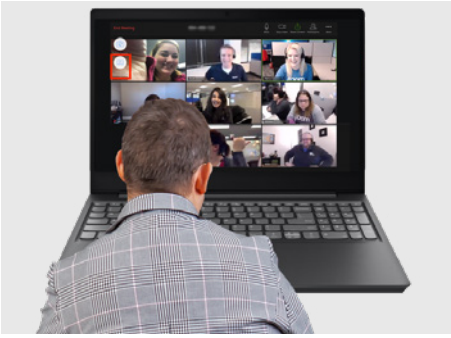

You can come to the conference in person at the Sydney Masonic Centre.

The address is

66 Goulburn St
Sydney NSW 2000.

Or you can join the conference online.

At the conference there will be

- Talks and keynote speeches
- Group talks about different issues called panel discussions
- Workshops
- Lots of things to do and be a part of.

Keynote speeches are important talks from people.

Panel discussions are group talks about different issues.

Who the conference is for

The conference is for

- People with intellectual disability

- Health care and disability workers

- Researchers

- Advocates.

Researchers are people who look into issues to learn new things.

Advocates are people who speak up for the rights of people with intellectual disability.

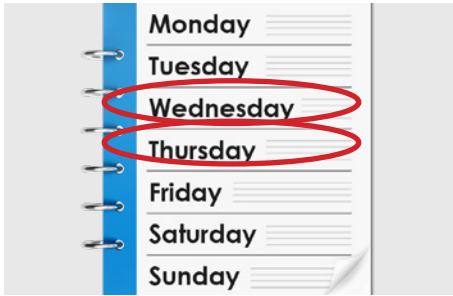

Everyone will be able to work together at the conference.

We will work to find ways to make health care better for people with intellectual disability.
