

Information for people who come to the conference

Information for delegates

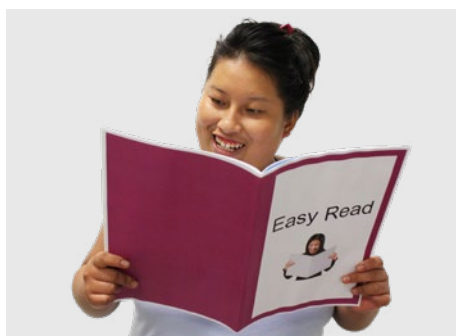

This information is about the conference for National Centre of Excellence in Intellectual Disability Health.

The name of the conference is Working Together Every Step of the Way.

This information is for people who come to the conference.

It has information that can support you to get ready for the conference.

About the conference

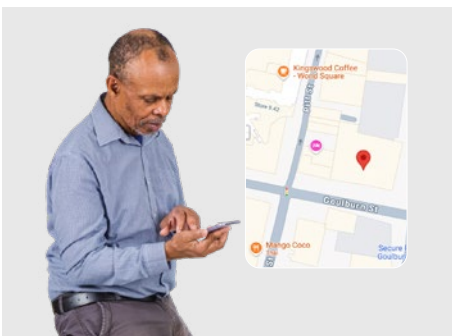

The conference goes for 2 days on

- Thursday 3 July 2025
- Friday 4 July 2025.

It is at the Sydney Masonic Centre.

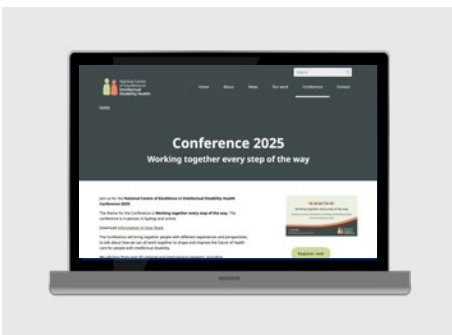

The address is
66 Goulburn Street
Sydney NSW 2000.

We might ask you what working together means to you at the conference.

Before the conference you can think about how you might answer this question.

To find out more about the conference you can go to the website at www.nceidh.org.au/conference

How to get to the conference

The Sydney Masonic Centre is in the Sydney city.

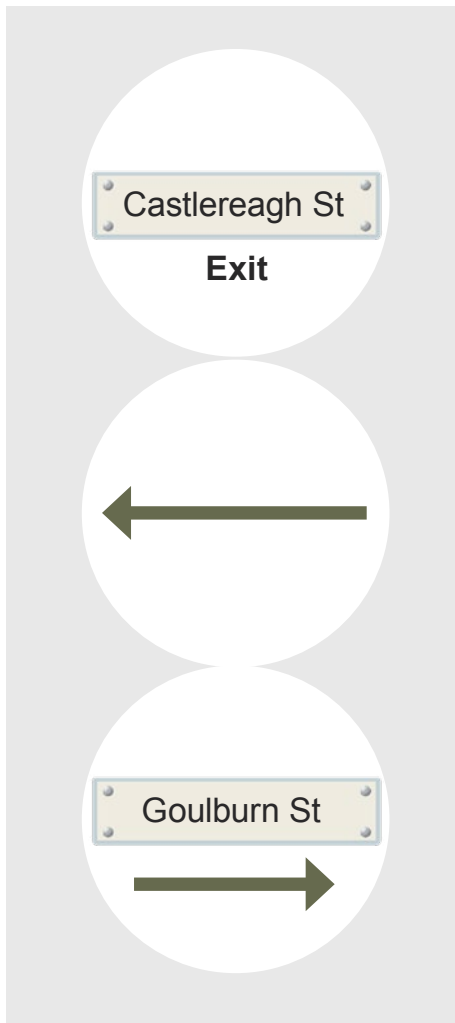

You can use public transport to get there.

If you catch a train you can get off at Museum Station.

It takes about 3 minutes to get there from Museum Station.

To get there from Museum Station you can

- Find the Castlereagh Street exit and go out that way
- Turn left and go down Castlereagh Street
- When you get to Goulburn Street turn right.

You can also catch a train to Central Station to get to the conference.

It takes about 7 minutes to get there from Central Station.

When you get to Central Station you can

- Find the Elizabeth Street exit and go out that way
- Turn left and go down Elizabeth Street
- When you get to Goulburn Street turn right.

You can also catch a bus to get to the conference.

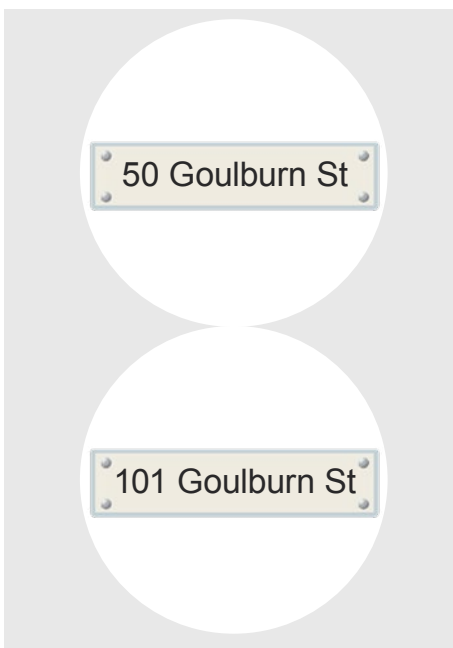

There are lots of buses that stop on Elizabeth Street and Castlereagh Street.

They stop close to the Sydney Masonic Centre.

If you drive to the conference there is no parking at the Sydney Masonic Centre.

There are car parks close by at

- World Square Car Park at 50 Goulburn Street
- Goulburn Street Car Park at 101 Goulburn Street.

There is also street parking you can pay for in the streets around the conference.

When you get to the conference

When you get to the conference you can go through the main doors.

After you go through the main doors you will see the registration desk.

A registration desk is where you go to sign in to the conference.

The workers at the registration desk will find your name tag.

After you have a name tag you can take the lift to Level 1.

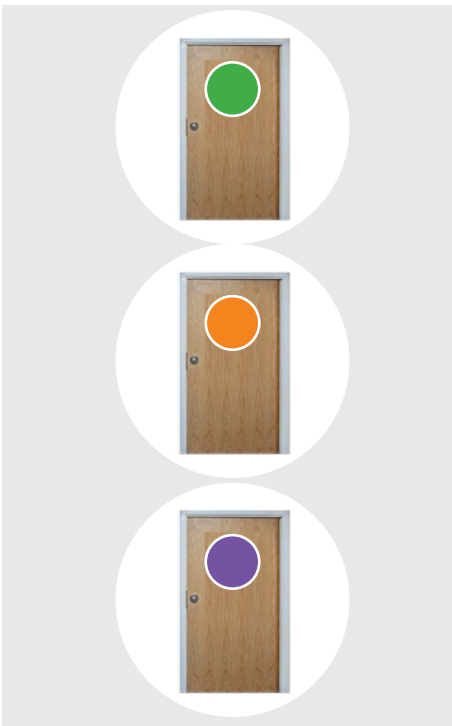

There is coffee on tea on Level 1.

How to get around the conference

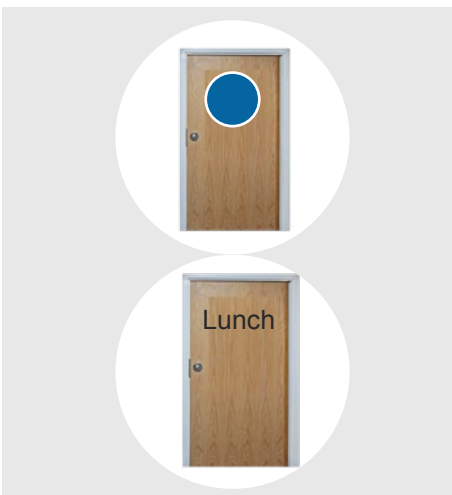

You can choose what sessions you want to go to at the conference.

The Ground Floor has

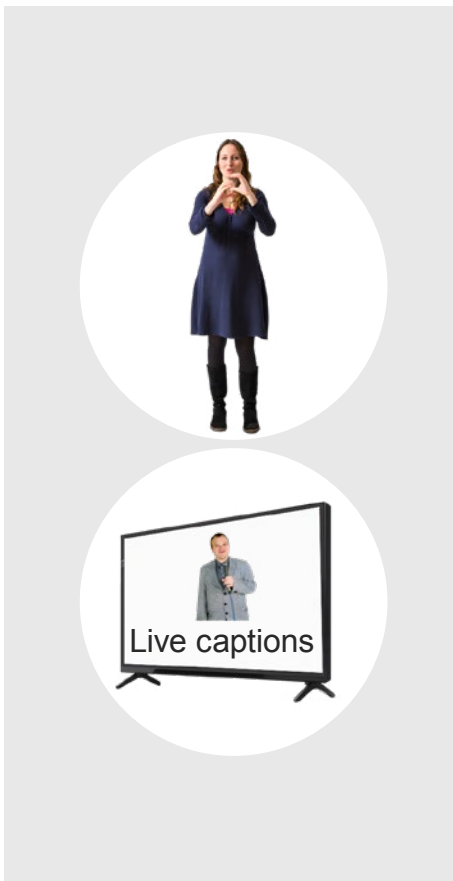

- The Green Room
- The Orange Room
- The Purple Room.

Level 1 has

- The Blue Room
- The Lunch Room.

In the Blue and Green rooms there will be

- Auslan interpreters

- Live captions.

Auslan interpreters are for people who are deaf or have trouble hearing.

Live captions means there are words on the screen that show what people say.

There are accessible toilets on all of the floors.

Accessible means all people with disability can use them.

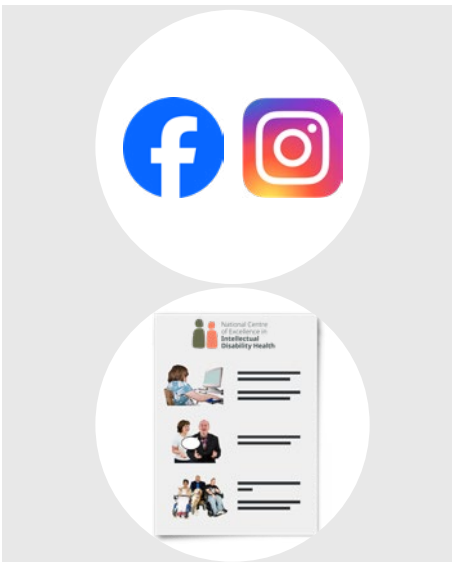

Photos

There will be a person taking photos at the conference.

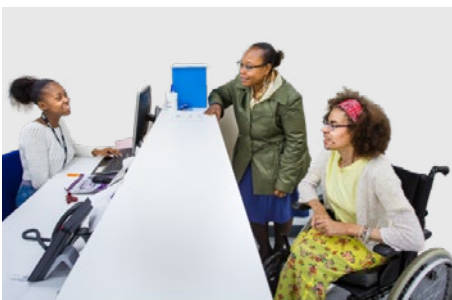

They will be taking photos for the National Centre of Excellence in Intellectual Disability Health.

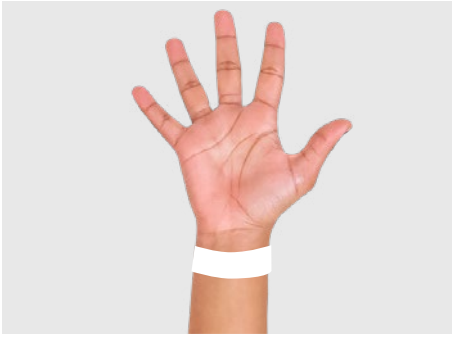

We might put the photos on our

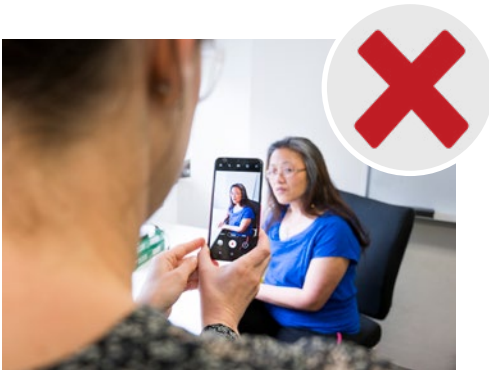

- Social media like Facebook and Instagram
- Newsletter.

Please let the registration desk know if you do not want us to take photos of you.

They will give you a wrist band.

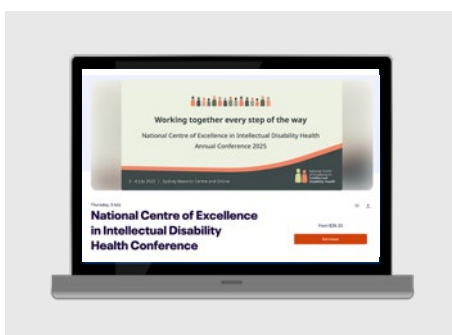

This is so the photographer knows not to take photos of you.

After day 1 of the conference

After day 1 of the conference there will be an event to meet and talk to other people.

You can buy tickets at www.eventbrite.com.au/e/1138470358489?aff=oddtcreator

Contact information

If you have any questions or need support on the day please

- Call Amy Simmons on 0405 255 594

- Go to the registration desk at the conference

- Go to our stall in the lunch room.

Council for Intellectual Disability made this document Easy Read. CID for short.
Email CID at business@cid.org.au if you want to use any of the pictures.